Mission

Frameworks of Tampa Bay, Inc. is a non-profit organization that empowers educators, youth services professionals, and parents/guardians with training, coaching and research-based resources to equip students with social and emotional skills.

These skills include:

- Self-Awareness
- Self-Management
- Social Awareness
- Relationship Skills
- Responsible Decision-Making

Tampa Oyster Fest

Frameworks' Tampa Oyster Fest is an exclusive, unique event supporting social and emotional learning (SEL) in our community. With the help of our generous supporters, Frameworks continues to expand our research-based social and emotional learning programming. Tampa Oyster Fest is held annually, and is a family-friendly event that includes:

- All-you-can-eat
 - chargrilled oysters
 - steamed oysters
 - raw oysters
 - low country boil of corn, potatoes, sausage, and shrimp
 - BBQ
- Tampa Bay Buccaneers game watch party on a big screen
- Games for the whole family including cornhole and giant Jenga

Benefits of Sponsorship

Your sponsorship of the 2nd Annual Tampa Oyster Fest will yield the following benefits:

- Promote greater awareness and recognition of your organization's social impact
- Inspire others to join in fostering emotional intelligence in Tampa Bay, yielding long-term social and economic benefits for the community
- Engage your business and employees in our nonprofit work!

COVID-19 Guidelines

Following safety guidelines, we will be taking temperatures of all attendees upon entrance. Any attendees who are unable to enter will receive a full refund for their ticket price. Masks and hand sanitizer will be provided, and social distancing will be encouraged in our expanded outdoor venue space.
